Section V: Confidentiality and Non-Interference

Request: INVESTOR, identified above, is requesting that MyDotCom Inc. provide INVESTOR with investment information prepared by or for companies managed by MyDotCom. This information may involve private exempt securities. All information and documents received by INVESTOR from MyDotCom Inc., at any time, is referred to herein, separately and in their entirety, as the “Investment Documents.”

Confidentiality: INVESTOR agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Investment Documents and not transmit or disclose them to any person or entity other than members of INVESTOR’S immediate family and INVESTOR’S attorney, accountant, professional financial advisor, partners, officers, directors, or management-level employees who are ordinarily involved in decisions regarding an investment. Any person or organization that receives the Investment Documents from INVESTOR is referred to as an “INVESTOR Recipient.” When INVESTOR does transmit the Investment Documents, INVESTOR will notify the INVESTOR Recipient that the documents are confidential and that INVESTOR has signed this confidentiality agreement. If INVESTOR desires to transmit the Investment Documents to a person or entity not described or identified in this paragraph, INVESTOR will first obtain the written permission of MyDotCom Inc.

Non-Interference: INVESTOR is making this request solely because INVESTOR is considering an investment in a company managed by MyDotCom Inc. and INVESTOR agrees not to intentionally do anything that would interfere in any way with MyDotCom Inc. or the company or companies identified in the Investment Documents. INVESTOR will not contact or direct any person or entity to contact any person or entity identified in the Investment Documents without the written permission of MyDotCom Inc. and will instruct and INVESTOR Recipient of the Investment Documents to do the same. All questions or requests regarding the investment, Investment Documents, and/or company will be directed solely to MyDotCom Inc.
